

Book 1 of the Naturalization Declarations, 1854-1861 Ohio Co, VA

Before 1906 most naturalization declarations consisted of the individual's name, the date he made his oath, and the foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereign he no longer swore allegiance to.

For unknown reason, during the tenure of John McColloch, clerk of the County Court, John R. McColloch, Samuel B. McCollock, George Whellier, Henry C. Flesher, and John Morro, deputy clerks, and Samuel Selby, George Wilson, Hervey Dorsey and Ben Swearingen, writers, besides the above mentioned three bits of information, these gentlemen recorded date and place of birth, occupation, date and place of departure, date and place of arrival in the U.S., and date of arrival in Ohio County.
