Country fair

admiring the rocking horse on a baby quilt; and past grand champion entrant Louise Savage of Long View Acres. Judging of quilts starts at Oglebay's Site 1 at 6:15 p.m. Friday. Needlework also will be judged at the fair at 6 p.m. Friday. Needlework and quilts will be on display both Saturday and Sunday.
