

A Pleasant Out Door Fete.

Miss Amy Savage gave a delightful little garden fete last night, at the residence of her grand-father Dr. J. O. Campbell, three miles out the Bethany pike. The affair was complimentary to Miss Reta Leonard, a charming Parkersburg lady, who is the guest of Miss Savage. The guests, numbering between thirty and forty, were mainly from the city, going out in the large 'bus "Dr. Hullihen."

The beautiful lawn that surrounds the hospitable old southern mansion was decorated with countless Japanese lanterns, whose soft mellow light set off to great advantage the light toilettes of the lady promenaders. Within the large parlors, which were tastefully decorated with choice flowers, dancing reigned supreme, Professor Killmyer occupying the piano and rendering waltzes and lancers with his old irresistible skill. At 11 o'clock a bountiful supper was served and duly appreciated. After this pleasant interval dancing was resumed and continued till 2 A. M., before adieux were spoken to the courteous young hostess and the 'bus boarded for home. A heavy shower came up about 10 o'clock and deluged the grounds, making promenading an impossibility. This slight drawback was hardly noticed by the guests as the spacious old halls and porticos furnished an abundance of room and innumerable cosy little retreats for tete-a-tetes.
