

District Men Officers Of Wool Growers Association

Observer Photo

Three sheep breeders from Washington and Greene Counties were among the officers elected to direct activities of the nation's oldest agricultural association, the Tri-State Sheep and Wool Growers Association, during the year 1951-52. They are pictured above: Seated, left to right, Vice President Peter Andrew, of Nineveh; President Bert

Vickers, Piedmont, O.; and Secretary Albert Miller, Avella. Standing, Pennsylvania Representative J. Raymond Henderson, of Hickory; West Virginia Representative Tom Savage, of Short Creek, and Ohio Representative Howard Fulton, of Cadiz. The men were elected at the association's 69th annual meeting held Saturday in Wheeling.