Bank Elects

C. Jack Savage, president of Savage Construction Co., was elected to the board of directors and Steven D. Ensminger was appointed auditor for the First National Bank of Wheeling at the bank's annual shareholder meeting this week.

The meeting was held at Wilson Lodge, Oglebay Park, because of current remodeling at the Elm Grove bank.

Savage succeeded his father in 1963 as president of Savage Construction Co. after serving as vice president of the company. The firm was started in 1945 as Charles C. Savage Contracting and changed to its present name in 1958.

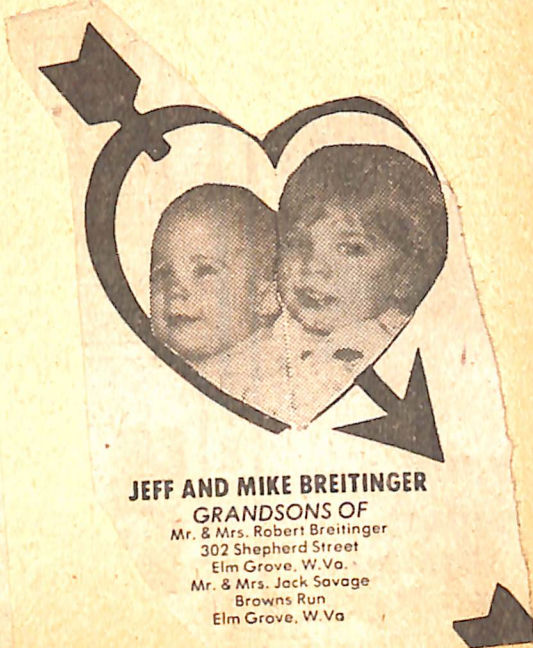

Ensminger has been serving as acting auditor for the past year. He is a 1978 graduate of West Liberty State College with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

Also at the meeting, President Jerry A. Halverson said total assets increased $7 million during the past year, resulting in an all-time high at year end of $73 million. Net income was up 5 percent from the previous year while cash dividends were increased $20,000.

Edmund Lee Jones was elected chairman of the board.
