

W4

MAJOR SAMUEL McCOLLOCH'S MONUMENT, WHEELING, W. VA.

SCENE OF McCOLLOCH'S LEAP, NATIONAL HISTORIC MONUMENT

5

McCOLLOCH'S LEAP

At the top of Wheeling Hill on the National Highway is this monument in honor to Samuel McColloch who, in September 1777 during an assault on Fort Henry, escaped from the Indians by leaping from this point of the hill side into the creek far below, hence the monument to his memory.

HARRY L. DAILEY, 635 BIRD ST., PARKERSBURG, W. VA.

*Dear Mother
All OK 9 o'clock
The moon is shining & there is not fog
we are making good time with the...*

POST CARD

THIS SPACE FOR ADDRESS ONLY

"C. T. ART. COLORSTONE," MADE ONLY BY CURT TEICH & CO., INC., CHICAGO, U.S.A.

*Mrs R.M. Wiley
Schellsburg
Pa*